

OSHA Training Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

Multiple Choice: Please circle the best possible answer for the following

1. What does OSHA stand for?

- a. Occupational Safety and Health Administration
- b. Occupational Safety and Hazards Administration
- c. Ongoing Safety and Health Assessment
- d. Outpatient Services and Health Assessment

2. What are Blood Borne Pathogens?

- a. Microchips that are planted under the skin to help prevent disease
- b. Microorganisms that are carried in the blood that can cause disease in humans
- c. Blood transfusions from animals to humans
- d. Microorganisms that are carried in the blood that prevent disease in humans

3. What is Universal Precautions?

- a. Not using protection or other safety measure to prevent the spread of infection
- b. Purposefully contacting bodily fluids, blood, tissue or towels whether they are infected or not
- c. Answers a and b
- d. Protecting yourself by treating all human blood and other potentially infectious materials (body fluids, tissues, towels, etc) as if they are contaminated

4. What are examples of PPE?

- a. Sunglasses, sunscreen, and a beach towel
- b. Gloves, gowns, face shields, and eye protection
- c. Needles, medication, and hand sanitizer
- d. Winter jacket, boots, and gloves

5. When should you wear PPE?

- a. When you go out for an afternoon walk
- b. When you shake a patients hand after meeting with them
- c. When you are on the way to the beach
- d. Anytime when coming in contact with bodily fluids (mucous, blood, etc) or any other potentially infectious materials that could be contaminated.

6. Where is the First Aid Kit located?

- a. At the front desk
- b. At the nurse's station
- c. In the laboratory
- d. Clinical Services Director's office

7. Where is the meeting location for fire evacuation?

- a. Directly in front of CVIM's office
- b. At CVIM's rear exit
- c. Across the street in the parking lot
- d. In front of the Patton Township building

8. Where is the Emergency Kit located?

- a. At the front desk
- b. At the nurse's station
- c. In the laboratory
- d. Clinical Services Director's office

9. What does MSDS stand for?

- a. Medical Services Data Sheet
- b. Medical Sheet for Dental Services
- c. Mandated Standards of Dental Services
- d. Material Safety Data Sheet

10. Where are MSDS sheets stored?

- a. At the front desk
- b. At the nurse's station
- c. In the laboratory
- d. Clinical Services Director's office

True or False: Answer the following questions by circling True or False.

11. True or False- Food and drink are permissible in the treatment areas.

12. True or False- CVIM prohibits and will not tolerate any form of workplace violence.

13. True or False- Location of fire extinguishers is on the evacuation plan

14. True or False- MSDS sheets contain important information regarding chemicals in the work environment, their possible effects, and how to handle them safely.

15. True or False- A good rule is to wash hands at least twice a shift or use hand sanitizer and to definitely wash hands before leaving the building.